

TESL NL INVITES YOU...
TO A SPECIAL PRESENTATION BY

JENNIFER WALSH MARR
EAP LECTURER AT UBC VANTAGE COLLEGE
AND PHD STUDENT IN LANGUAGE
AND LITERACY EDUCATION AT OISE

An English Language Teacher's Response to Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission

In this presentation, Jennifer Walsh Marr shares the rationale and process of developing content and language integrated English teaching resources that explore Indigenous and settler histories in Canada as a response to the TRC's Calls to Action. Situated in Academic English studies with international students, the presentation explores how language choices position participants in disciplinary texts and examines students' reflections on their learning, as well as future directions and opportunities to engage with the Calls to Action across ESL contexts.
