What Are The 6 Principles?

TESOL International Association has defined a core set of principles for the exemplary teaching of English learners. The 6 Principles are universal guidelines drawn from decades of research in language pedagogy and language acquisition theory. They are targets for teaching excellence and should undergird any program of English language instruction.

The 6 Principles

1. Know Your Learners
2. Create Conditions for Language Learning
3. Design High-Quality Lessons for Language Development
4. Adapt Lesson Delivery as Needed
5. Monitor and Assess Student Language Development
6. Engage and Collaborate within a Community of Practice

You must implement the 6 Principles as a whole. You cannot just know your learners, for example, and then not act on that knowledge when you plan instruction.

Calgary Bridge Foundation for Youth

<https://www.cbfy.ca/wp-content/uploads/2020/11/Book-of-Stories-2020.pdf>

This special 30th Anniversary Edition of "In Their Own Words" is a collection of newcomer youth award-winning essays that speak notably to the personal immigrant and refugee journeys of 31 scholarship award winners in this 30th year of services. The aura that surrounds this great read is generated by the power of voice of talented and aspirational young men and women who are the future of the next economy and whatever these youth achieve in the future is the greatest gift of life. Each story shares a unique experience, has a special nuance and reminds the reader that adversities will always walk beside us in life, but dreams are worth pursuing. These inspirational stories are defined, by courage, perseverance, passion and resilience. As you read "In Their Own Words" it is apparent that The Calgary Bridge Foundation for Youth inspire youth, and in the words of Maya Angelou "not merely to survive, but to thrive" through equitable and engaging programs and services and through a simple philosophy. "We are who we are because of who we were and where we come from and we should be proud of ourselves."

Thank you to all award donors for recognizing these exceptional individuals and for your service to humanity.
